More Weeks Before Convention Day

Just Soon Prepare To Make Their Tickets—Abundance of Material Available.

Nominations of candidates for officers must be in the City recorder's office on or before fifteen days before election. Some lawyers say this means that October 16th is the latest date, while others say the ticket can be filed as late as Monday, 18th.

With only two more weeks to make the ticket, there ordinarily should be much discussion of candidates. The contrary is the case. The reporter interviewed many citizens regarding their preferences for men to fill the several positions. Following is a list of men whom their friends say would be good mayors if they were given chance: J. L. Harvey, the present incumbent, L. W. Lund, C. F. West, J. R. Halliday, J. W. Thorne, Dr. A. E. Cooper, W. L. Hayes, S. Swenson, H. L. Clark, Niels Fugal, C. Nelson, E. D. Olpin, Herman Monson, J. H. Walker, F. S. Humphries, J. F. Banks, C. E. Harp, Thomas Larson and Mark Bez, which by no means exhausts the list of men who have the necessary ability. Only one of them can be mayor, but the others are suggested available material for councilmen. The Republican chairman says that will call a Republican convention, leading Democrats are advocating a Democratic ticket. In the City. The Citizen's party has elected a majority of its candidates for the four years, and will call another convention this year, so it is just possible that there may be three tickets in which the voters may make a choice.

RAISE STANDARD OF DANCES

Several Pleasant Grove members of the High Council, bishops and heads of state organizations went to American Fork Monday night to attend a meeting on improving the moral standard of dances in the Alpine area. Mr. Clark, owner of the Orpheum Hall, was also present. Another report is given on the American Fork page.

Merely Lady Badly Burned With Gasoline

Mrs. John Pierce came near losing her life in a gasoline explosion at the home of Wm. Clivish last Tuesday. They were doing the family washing and she poured some gasoline in the boiler of water. Instantly it exploded and Mrs. Pierce was enveloped in the flames. Her daughter, Mrs. Clivish, was close by and smothered the flames, else Mrs. Pierce, who is about sixty years of age, would have been killed. She was badly burned on the arms, hands and face.

STUDENTS ATTENDING HIGHER INSTITUTIONS

Pleasant Grove has educated many of its citizens and sent away many graduates, now holding leading positions in different educational institutions throughout the state. Its High School is one of the best, and many of its graduates will this year attend higher colleges.

New Meat Market

Opens Next Tuesday

Thorne Bros. have completed building on the First South Streets. The business early in the week, probably Tuesday. They will have modern meat and grocery store containing the best and latest in every thing good to eat. They will also buy all kinds of fruits and vegetables, butter and eggs and will run two wagons to the mining camps with produce purchased here. Their refrigerator will be cooled with ice manufacturing machinery which will also enable them to supply ice for the summer trade. The boys are well known here and are hustlers for any thing they go after. They say that their store will be equal to any thing of its kind south of Salt Lake.

Unloading Sugar Beets At New Station

The farmers are now hauling in their sugar beets at the rate of about 120 tons per day to the loading yards at the Salt Lake Route depot. Yesterday they commenced loading cars at the spur, where the slicing station will be located. Herman Green is in charge at the new station and Thomas Larson at the old stand. The beets are generally not yielding so heavy a tonnage per acre as last year, but increased acreage will probably bring the total yield up higher than last year. Some of the beets are going 20 tons per acre. A few patches suffered blight, but generally the fields are quite free from disease. Next year the company will erect a slicing station and instead of shipping beets out, other localities will be shipping beets here.

MISS REYNOLDS RESUMES CLASSES

Miss Alice Reynolds of the B. Y. U. gave an interesting address in the Tabernacle last Sunday night under the auspices of the Religion Classes. She commenced holding the Bible class sessions in the High School building Thursday evening, and will continue holding sessions every Thursday night. Last year her subject was the life of Christ, and besides the High School students, many others attended. This year her subject will be from the Old Testament and promises to be equally interesting and instructive.

Will Improve State Road

The City Council Committee on Streets is advertising for teams to help grade and surface with gravel the State Road between the city limits from the railroad crossing to John P. Hayes' home. About $800 will be expended on it, one-half of which will come from this city and the other half from the State Road fund of the State and County. The money will be distributed as widely as possible and every taxpayer who has a team will be given work as long as the job lasts. The date for commencing has not been set, but will probably be the week that the factory usually shuts down on the farmers digging beets. It is intended to make the road about thirty feet wide.

BANK OF PLEASANT GROVE DECLARES GOOD DIVIDEND

The directors of the Bank of Pleasant Grove held a meeting here last Tuesday and declared its usual quarterly dividend of two per cent. The checks will be sent to the stockholders at an early date. The bank's depositors are more numerous than ever, and its healthy condition reflects a similar condition of the community. This makes six per cent that the bank has paid its stockholders this year.

Connecting the Towns

A town without adequate local telephone service is handicapped in the promotion of local commercial and social activities.

Likewise, without Long Distance connections, it suffers a severe handicap in its commercial and social relations with other communities.

Every business community is entitled to this modern and popular means of transmitting intelligence.

In the very nature of our business, and under our charter obligations, it is the duty of this company to afford facilities for Long Distance communication, so far as our ability may permit.

We must do this, notwithstanding that the towns are often separated by rugged mountain ranges, and the cost of construction and maintenance is enormous.

And every town connected helps to round out our system, thus adding to the value of the service.
